

Marketing Performance Report

May 1 – 31, 2025 compared to Mar 31 – Apr 30, 2025

norton odonnell

This "Marketing Performance Report" breaks down the KPI's and metrics achieved in the month of May. The focus is both on paid ads as well as organic social media performance.

Table Of Content

- Google Ads Performance
- Instagram Performance
- LinkedIn Performance
- Meta Ads Performance

Google Ads Performance

Google Ads Performance

Key Insight: Strong improvement in efficiency and ROI—higher conversions and traffic at significantly lower cost per click.

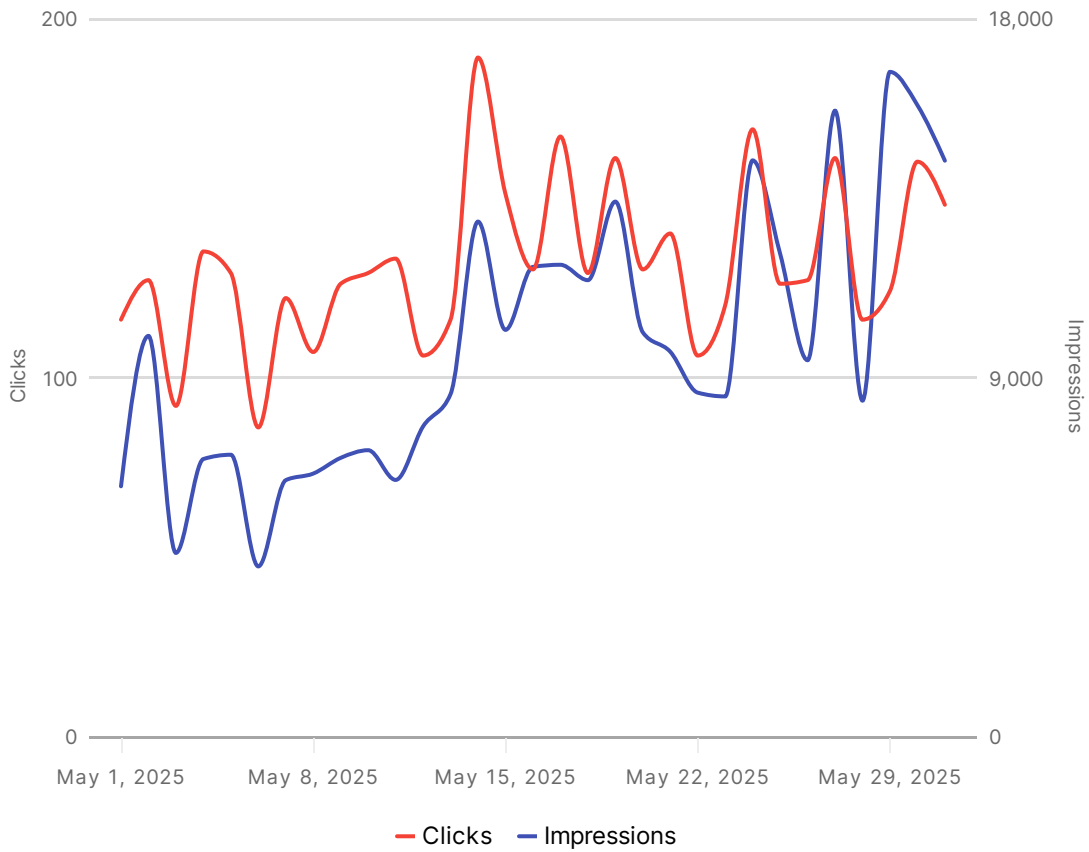

Glossary

- Cost: The total amount spent on Google Ads over the reporting period.
- Clicks: The total number of times users clicked on your ad.
- Impressions: The number of times our ad was seen.
- Conversions: The number of actions completed by users after clicking our ad, such as Phone calls, Direction requests or Lead form submissions. This reflects campaign success.
- Average CPC (Cost Per Click): The average amount paid for each click on our ad. It helps us understand the cost-efficiency of our traffic.
- Cost per Conversion: The average cost to acquire one conversion. A lower value indicates a better return on our advertising investment.
- Conversion Rate: The percentage of clicks that result in a conversion. A higher conversion rate indicates better ad performance and landing page experience.
- CTR (Click-Through Rate): The percentage of people who saw our ad & clicked on it. Calculated as (Clicks ÷ Impressions) × 100. A key indicator of how relevant and compelling our ads are.

Overall Takeaways

- Massive Growth in Organic & Paid Social Reach
Instagram reach grew by over 330%, with total views surging 223% and paid engagement metrics skyrocketing across the board. Follower growth can be attributed to purchased followers, but the increase in post engagement is due to boosting high quality content & campaign optimizations. Boosted Reels and targeted posts delivered particularly strong results, positioning Instagram as a high-impact channel with great cost efficiency.
- Google Ads Became More Efficient
Despite a 37% increase in ad spend, Google Ads delivered more clicks, more conversions, and a stable cost per conversion, with a 19.7% rise in conversions and a healthier cost per conversion—showing greater return on ad investment.
- Meta Ads Delivered High Volume at Low Cost
With a newly launched ad account, Meta campaigns achieved over 213K impressions, 2.1K link clicks & 825 new leads at a competitive CPC of ZAR 1.34, highlighting its strong cost-efficiency and value in driving traffic & leads.
