

Marketing Performance Report

Jul 1 – 28, 2025 compared to Jun 3 – 30, 2025

norton odonnell

This "Marketing Performance Report" breaks down the KPI's and metrics achieved in the month of July. The focus is both on paid ads as well as organic social media performance.

Table Of Content

- Google Ads Performance
- Instagram Performance
- LinkedIn Performance
- Meta Ads Performance
- Key Takeaways

Google Ads Performance

Google Ads Performance

Key Insight: The increase in Google Ads budget sometimes does more damage than good, but optimisations will be made to try lower the cost/conv. If conversion metrics continue to decline, then I will reallocate some of the extra budget to Meta for boosting.

Glossary

- Cost: The total amount spent on Google Ads over the reporting period.
- Clicks: The total number of times users clicked on your ad.
- Impressions: The number of times our ad was seen.
- Conversions: The number of actions completed by users after clicking our ad, such as Phone calls, Direction requests or Lead form submissions. This reflects campaign success.
- Average CPC (Cost Per Click): The average amount paid for each click on our ad. It helps us understand the cost-efficiency of our traffic.
- Cost per Conversion: The average cost to acquire one conversion. A lower value indicates a better return on our advertising investment.
- Conversion Rate: The percentage of clicks that result in a conversion. A higher conversion rate indicates better ad performance and landing page experience.
- CTR (Click-Through Rate): The percentage of people who saw our ad & clicked on it. Calculated as (Clicks ÷ Impressions) × 100. A key indicator of how relevant and compelling our ads are.

July 2025 Key Takeaways

- Google Ads

In respect to last month, I lowered the Budget by ±30%, which had a positive overall impact on the campaigns. Most metrics held up to the same levels as June, which had a R15k budget, while most metrics even improved in comparison.

- Budget reduced by 25.6%, improving cost efficiency.
- Clicks: 5,027 (+1.9%) and Impressions: 740.9K (+21.2%).
- CPC: Dropped 27% (now ZAR 2.17), driving cheaper traffic.
- Conversions: 42 (+10.5%), with conversion rate lifting +8.5%.
- CTR: Declined (-15.9%), likely from budget adjustments or the introduction of the new graphics—optimisations planned for August.

Instagram

We faced challenges boosting newer posts due to product visibility, so we focused on running previous ads like Happy Hour, Night Owl, and lead form campaigns. Kyle's new graphics drove 70.1% higher engagement and boosted landing page link clicks by 245%.

- Reach: Up 66.7%, and views: up 64.3% driven by boosted ads.
- Engagement: Up 70.1%, while link clicks surged 245.8%, showing strong CTAs.
- Organic and paid content balanced well, with engagement from Kyle's new graphics contributing to stronger results.

Meta Ads

Meta Ads delivered strong results, with impressions up 169.5%, reach doubling, and link clicks rising 305.5%. Lead form campaigns drove 2,039 new leads, while a reduced CPC of ZAR 0.80 highlighted improved cost efficiency & more bang for our buck.

- Impressions: 1.217M (+169.5%), Reach: 442.9K (+106.4%).
- Link Clicks: Up 305.5%, with leads climbing to 2,039 (+∞).
- CPC: Down to ZAR 0.80, and CTR stabilised at 2%, reflecting strong ROI from lead campaigns.

LinkedIn

This was our first paid month on linkedin in the last few months.

LinkedIn saw steady performance with an engagement rate of 3.75%, driven by event and lifestyle content. While organic reach held steady, there's clear potential to amplify results by testing different boosted campaigns & other avenues aimed at a newer more refined audience.

- Engagement rate: 3.75%
- Opportunity to trial boosted campaigns for wider professional reach.
- Write copy which is more linkedin appropriate, such as talking about cannabis & cannabis news in South Africa.
